Description

This bright 2-bedroom apartment offers a refined balance between contemporary design, functionality and everyday comfort. Located in a recently completed residential building, the home provides an elegant and relaxed residential experience.

Situated in one of Bucharest's the most sought after residential areas

The interior layout is practical and well organized, featuring two bathrooms, generous living areas and premium finishes designed for long-term comfort. Underfloor heating, quality windows and durable materials enhance energy efficiency, while the 6.4 sqm balcony adds a pleasant outdoor extension perfect for relaxation.

The building stands out through its modern concept, limited number of residences and carefully designed green spaces. Underground parking and quality construction contribute to a well-balanced residential environment.

Residents benefit from easy access to key destinations in the northern part of the city while enjoying a quiet and discreet atmosphere.
