Interior & Functionality

The open space of 126 sqm usable area is the main area of the unit and can be arranged as a dining room, retail floor or work area, depending on the operator's concept. The equipped kitchen, with separate entrance and exit, supports the organization of the operational flow, while the four restrooms and the storage space support day-to-day activity. The layout allows use as a restaurant, café, catering unit, shop or office; the specific adaptation depends on each operator's requirements and the authorizations applicable to the activity.

Amenities

- Free visitor parking: over 20 shared spaces in the center, subject to availability, not allocated exclusively to this unit
- Own central heating
- Air conditioning
- Equipped kitchen, with separate entrance and exit
- 4 restrooms
- Storage space
- Optional terrace of 26 sqm usable area

Location & Lifestyle

The Iancu Nicolae – Pipera area brings together residential complexes, international schools and kindergartens, giving a restaurant, café or retail operator a customer base made up of local residents and families.

Major international schools operate in the area: British School of Bucharest, Cambridge School of Bucharest, Mark Twain International School and Little London International Academy.

The Strip Mall hosts tenants such as Zensushi, Starbucks and Ferma Baciu, so a new operator joins a center that is already active.

The location offers access to the Pipera business zones and to Otopeni Airport.
