Description

This 2 bedroom apartment offers a balanced lifestyle inside a recently completed building designed for comfort, privacy and functionality. The semi-detached layout creates a natural flow between living and private areas, delivering a bright and practical home environment.

Situated in one of Bucharest's the most sought after residential areas

The interior benefits from underfloor heating, premium windows and carefully selected finishes, complemented by an equipped kitchen and air conditioning system. The balcony extends the living space outdoors, bringing additional natural light and a pleasant sense of openness.

The building integrates modern facilities such as elevator access and underground parking, while durable construction materials and solid structure ensure long-term reliability. A limited number of residences together with generous green areas creates a calm and refined residential atmosphere.

Well positioned with easy access to key destinations in the northern part of the city, the property combines connectivity with tranquility and proximity to nature. It is a strong choice for those looking for a contemporary home with efficient design and a comfortable lifestyle.
