Description

This modern 2-bedroom apartment in Cortina 126 provides a comfortable and well-organised home for contemporary living in the Iancu Nicolae–Pipera area. Located on the first floor of a residential building completed in 2025, the property features a practical layout, complete furnishings and carefully selected equipment.

Situated in one of the most sought after residential areas in Bucharest.

The interior includes a bright living area with dedicated dining space, two comfortable bedrooms, two bathrooms and a fully equipped open-plan kitchen with a dishwasher. Two balconies provide additional outdoor space, while air conditioning and an individual heating system support year-round comfort.

The property includes one underground parking space, and the building is equipped with an elevator. Residents benefit from permanent security, controlled access, landscaped green areas and illuminated pathways within the residential development.

The location provides convenient access to Cambridge School, restaurants, supermarkets, leisure destinations and the main amenities available throughout Pipera and Iancu Nicolae.
