Description

This elegant 3-bedroom apartment is located in a newly built boutique residence with a limited number of units, offering privacy, security, and a high standard of comfort. Perfectly positioned in one of the most desirable areas of northern Bucharest, right across from the British School, this property is ideal for families or expats looking for a refined and well-connected home.

Premium Finishes, Modern Furniture, and Ideal Location Opposite British School

Layout and living space:

The apartment features a smart, functional layout with bright and well-proportioned rooms.

The spacious living room provides a warm and welcoming atmosphere, ideal for both relaxation and entertaining.

The kitchen is fully equipped with premium appliances and seamlessly integrates with the living area for both functionality and style.

The night area includes three tastefully furnished bedrooms and two modern bathrooms, fitted with high-end sanitary ware.

The unit also includes a balcony or terrace with open views, providing an abundance of natural light and a private outdoor space.

Finishes and amenities:

Luxury finishes, carefully selected materials, and contemporary design elements define the interior of the apartment.

The building benefits from secure access and a limited number of apartments, ensuring peace and privacy.

Parking is available upon request, either underground or surface-level, depending on preference, for an additional cost.

Area and accessibility:

Located directly across from the British School, this apartment offers excellent access to top international schools, restaurants, parks, and shopping centers.

Its prime location ensures both tranquility and quick connection to major business hubs and lifestyle destinations in northern Bucharest, making it an ideal choice for premium urban living.
