Location and Lifestyle

For professionals, Promenada Mall and the Barbu Văcărescu office hub are a short distance away, which means a short commute. Pipera brings shopping, services and the workplace into the same part of the city, while Bulevardul Pipera provides the road link to central Bucharest and to Henri Coandă International Airport.

For families, Bucharest Zoo is nearby, and the Pipera area is home to several international schools, around which an international, multilingual community has formed. Pipera is a preferred area for expat families and for professionals working for multinational companies.

Pipera ranks among the areas with the strongest value growth in Bucharest and Ilfov over the past five years, with demand supported by the schools, the amenities and the limited supply of land, a relevant context from an investment perspective as well.
