Location & Lifestyle

Drumul Taberei was designed as a self-sufficient district, with schools, kindergartens, retail space and green areas between the blocks, and that structure still works today. For a family, this means a daily routine at short distances: Grădinița nr. 208 is in the immediate vicinity, and a school is nearby.

Valea Ialomiței metro station (M5) is 200 m away. The line links the district with Eroilor, with connections to the other metro lines, and it is a practical alternative to the heavy rush-hour traffic on the main roads of the area. A nearby STB stop adds to the transport options.

Kaufland, 300 m away, covers everyday shopping, and the district has fresh produce markets and services close at hand. For weekends, the district is known for Drumul Taberei Park, with its lake, returned to the community in 2015.

Interest in new homes in Drumul Taberei rose sharply after M5 opened in 2020, and the blocks built between 1965 and 1985, with often generous floor areas, remain the backbone of the district's housing supply. A large housing stock and the nearby metro make the area an attractive choice for both families and investors.
