Description

Exquisite urban duplex apartment divided over the first and second floor of an architectural, architect Jean Monda, art deco building dated 1932. The building and apartment have been recently renovated.

Located in a lively area of Bucharest close to the metro station and walking distance to Piata Romana, Dorobanti and Piata Floreasca area.

The apartment has an own entrance and courtyard, parking two cars, taking you to the first floor where you find a large living and dining area, a modern kitchen, two bedrooms, bathroom and separate toilet. (One is now made into an office)

From the stairs you go up to the 2nd floor where you find another large living area connected to a private terrace. Here you also find a nice bedroom with jacuzzi bathroom and sauna.

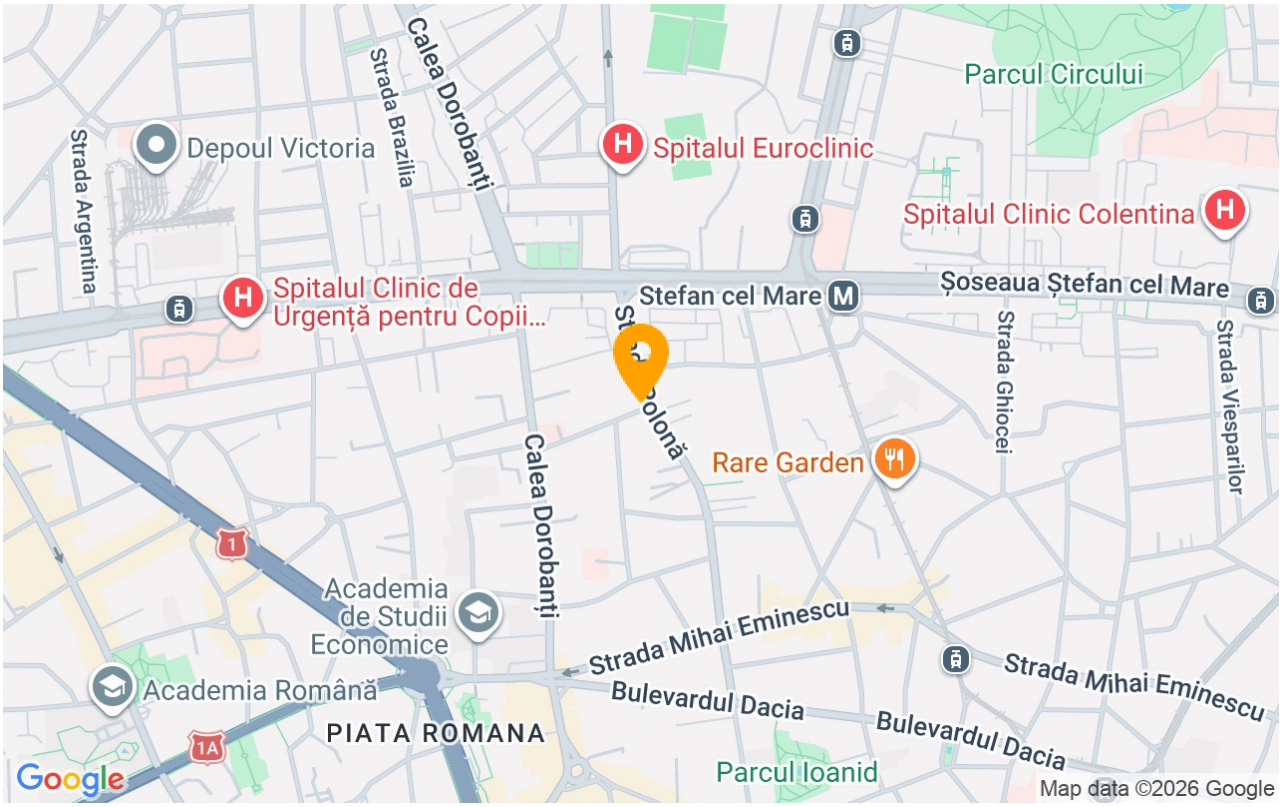

An apartment of appx 300m2 for somebody who likes to live in a vintage building with all needed for a pleasant and worryless living.
