Description

This 780 sqm usable area villa in Iancu Nicolae, Pipera, stands out through a rare local market advantage: it operated for 12 years as a primary school, confirming both its functional flexibility and the quality of the space. The generous layout suits reconversion into a school again, a representative residence, offices, a medical clinic, or a beauty and massage spa.

Prime Visibility at the Iancu Nicolae-Pipera Junction

Property Details:

- 9 rooms, including 8 bedrooms
- 780 sqm usable area (interior)
- 900 sqm built area
- 800 sqm private garden, 1,000 sqm total land
- 240 sqm footprint
- 5 bathrooms, 2 kitchens (one in the basement, one on the ground floor), 5 balconies
- Layout: basement + ground + 1st floor + attic, built in 2000, renovated in 2015
- 6 parking spaces (2 indoor, 4 outdoor)

The semi-furnished interior is arranged across the basement, ground, first floor and attic levels, with an equipped kitchen, dishwasher, independent central heating and air conditioning. The two kitchens and five bathrooms allow flexible compartmentalization, suited both to an extended family and to reconfiguration into office space, consultation rooms or treatment rooms, without compromising on comfort.

Amenities:

- Both kitchens are equipped
- Dishwasher
- Semi-furnished
- Independent central heating
- Air conditioning
- Suitable for office use

Positioned at the Iancu Nicolae-Pipera junction with direct access to Bulevardul Pipera, the property enjoys prime visibility — a key advantage for any representative, medical, or spa activity that depends on street-facing exposure. Iancu Nicolae is one of the most established premium residential communities in north Bucharest, with high purchasing power and a stable international profile shaped by long-standing expat presence.

Proximity to British School of Bucharest reinforces the logic of a school reconversion, while the area's quiet, villa-with-garden character also supports the representative residence or boutique clinic option.
