Location & Lifestyle

Residence5 Oliveto is in Iancu Nicolae, opposite Mark Twain International School. For families with children at the school, the daily school run comes down to a few steps. About 5 minutes away by car are British School of Bucharest, Cambridge School of Bucharest, American International School of Bucharest and Lycée Français Anna de Noailles, along with other private schools and kindergartens.

100 m from the complex, Jolie Ville Galleria is also home to the World Class Jolie Ville fitness club. The area is known for its proximity to Pădurea Băneasa, the main green space in northern Bucharest, suited to walking, running and cycling. Leading private medical facilities, including pediatric and maternity care, are in the same part of the city.

Iancu Nicolae is a quiet, low-density residential area, preferred by expat families and by families who choose their home around their children's school. The community is international and takes shape around the schools, extracurricular activities and the shared spaces of the secure residential complexes. The presence of the international schools has made the area a long-term residential hub, with sustained demand for premium homes.

The Pipera office district is a short drive away, and the area's main roads connect to the city center and to Henri Coandă International Airport. The area is car-dependent, and its advantage is that school, shopping, healthcare and nature are all in the same part of the city.
