Location:

The house is situated in the Iancu Nicolae – Băneasa area, one of the most sought-after residential zones in northern Bucharest. The area provides access to numerous international schools, with the most well-known being: Cambridge School of Bucharest approximately 700 metres away, Mark Twain International School approximately 900 metres away, British School of Bucharest 2.2 km away at around 5 minutes by car, and Lycée Français Anna de Noailles 3.7 km away at around 6 minutes by car — an essential advantage for families with school-age children. Jolie Ville Galleria and Mega Image are in immediate proximity, Băneasa Shopping City is approximately 1.7 km away, and Băneasa International Airport is around 1.3 km.

A property that combines the privacy of a corner duplex with the amenities of a gated residential complex, in one of Bucharest's most established northern addresses.

FAQ

1. What is the total area of the house and how are the rooms distributed?

The house offers 180 sqm of usable space across three levels. The ground floor includes a living and dining area, open kitchen, guest WC, and storage. The first floor has a master bedroom with en-suite and two further bedrooms sharing a bathroom. The attic is an open multipurpose space.

2. What shared facilities does the complex offer?

The complex has a shared outdoor pool, a shared playroom for children, and code-controlled gate access. It is a mixed community of local and expat residents with a predominantly family-oriented profile.

3. What are the advantages of a corner position?

Corner units have facades on two sides, providing more natural light and a larger private garden than intermediate units in the complex.

4. Which international schools are nearby?

The area provides access to numerous international schools, with the most well-known being: Cambridge School of Bucharest approximately 700 metres away, Mark Twain International School approximately 900 metres away, British School of Bucharest 2.2 km away, and Lycée Français Anna de Noailles 3.7 km away. It is one of the best-positioned zones in Bucharest for families with school-age children.

5. What does the property include beyond the living space?

The house comes with a private garden, 2 parking spaces, and access to the complex's shared outdoor pool and playroom. Internally it is fully furnished with a fully equipped kitchen, own central heating system, air conditioning, and a fireplace.
