Description

4-room apartment located on Calea Calarasi, St. Stephen's Church.

The apartment is located in a building D + G + 3, built in Art Deco style with high ceilings, located on the street, and on the basement, there is storage space.

The building is not included in the list of buildings with seismic risk, and in 2001, the basement and the ground floor of the building have been renovated and reinforced by a company specialized in such works.

Inside the apartment is completely renovated. After obtaining the building permit for the renovation of the facade of the building, until January 2019 plaster works were executed on the exterior of the building.
